

Wauchope

Part of the Forests of the Southern Uplands

Facilities

Parking

Picnic area

Mountain biking

Horse riding

You'll find a selection of places to shop and eat in Hawick and Newcastleton. There are also public toilets in Hawick.

There is a charge to park at some of our sites please refer to our website for details.

Trail Information

Jonny's Trail ●●●

Walk in the footsteps of Jonny the forester, along the Catlee Burn and up through oak, ash, birch and larch.

Largely wide firm gravel track, with section of uneven earth and stone. Long slope with steep sections. Several bridges. no waymarkers on the fort itself to protect the monument.

1 mile / 1.7 km
Allow ¾ hour

The Cauldron Trail ●●●

Climb up through the spruce to enjoy the solitude of Wauchope, before winding back down through the trees. A good leg stretch.

Mostly wide, firm gravel tracks with long moderate slopes. Includes section of narrow, uneven earth and rocky paths with short fairly steep slopes.

1¾ miles / 2.9 km
Allow 1 hour

Location

Nearest postcode: TD9 9TB

How to get here

Wauchope lies either side of the B6357, which links Bonchester Bridge and Newcastleton in the Scottish Borders.

From Hawick, head to Bonchester Bridge on the A6088. Turn right on to the B6357 south towards Newcastleton for approximately two miles. Hells Hole is the first access point to Wauchope and is on the right-hand side.

